PROBLEM 1.—There is a number composed of two digits, of which the right hand one is the greater. The difference between the two, added to the greater, equals four times the smaller; and if half the number itself be added to half the greater digit, and the sum be divided by the difference between the two, the quotient will equal the right hand digit. Required, that number?

The editor of the Rochester Democrat has discovered a wrinkle for sportsmen. It is to destroy fleas on a dog, and keep them away from him for ever afterwards. The operation is simple: to soak the dog in camphene for five minutes, and then set fire to him.

A lady gazing with admiration at one of the obstructions thrown across the Susquehannah, for the purpose of working the machinery of some mills on the other side of it, exclaimed, with perfect simplicity, "Oh, isn't that dam beautiful!"

SAVE THE MAN WITH THE RED HEAD.—Two men attempting to descend the rapids of the Sault Ste. Marie, were upset. As the accident occurred near the town, many of the inhabitants were attracted to the bank of the river to watch their struggles, thinking an attempt at a rescue would be hopeless. Suddenly, however, a person came rushing toward the group, frantic with excitement. "Save the man with the red head," he vehemently shouted, and the exertions made in consequence of his earnest appeals were successful, and the red-haired man was safely landed. "He owes me eighteen dollars," said his rescuer, drawing a long breath, and looking approvingly at his assistants.

"MA," said a young miss to her mother the other day, "what is emigrating"

"Emigrating, dear, is a young lady going to California."

"What is colonization, ma?"

"Colonization, dear, is marrying there, and having a family."

"Ma, I should like to go to California."

Recently, a local preacher, distinguished for a grandiloquence of style unattained by men of common genius, concluded a fervid supplication for the success of the allied arms with the—we shall not say elegant, we fear to say pathetic, but we may say unmistakable petition : "Lord smash the Russians ! Lord smash 'em ! Amen !"

"Ma, I want a sled. I do want a sled. Can I have a sled, ma ?"

"Certainly, my son ; I suppose so. Ask your father."

"I don't like to ask him, ma."

"Why, what nonsense ! Ask him."

"No, ma—you ask him ; you've known him the longest."

PROBLEM 6.—On a certain day, when the sun's declination was 16 deg. 25 min. south, in 39 deg. 20 min. north latitude, I observed the magnetic amplitude of the sun at rising, to be east 24 deg. 30 min. south. The true amplitude of the sun, and declination of the compass needle are required.

PROBLEM 7.—Three persons, A. B. and C., purchased a farm in partnership, which they shortly afterwards sold at an advance, gaining thereby a sum less by $7,200 than it cost them. B.'s share of the gain was $480, and the sum he paid towards the purchase was $2,800 more than what C. paid. A. and C. together paid $3,200. What did the farm cost, and what did each pay?

Smithers, telling of some of his trials, says he had been shipwrecked once, was burned out twice, and had to pay the notes of three of his friends for whom he had endorsed, fell through a man-trap in the sidewalk and broke a leg, was arrested by the sheriff on the morning of his marriage for a debt he didn't owe, but all these evils he bore without murmuring. The great trial of his life was, that his wife wouldn't let him smoke in the parlor.

The finest idea of a thunder storm is when Wiggins came home tight. He entered the room among his wife and daughters, and just then he tumbled over the cradle and fell whop on the floor. After a while he rose and said: "Wife, are you hurt?" "No." "Girls, are you hurt?" "No." "Terrible clap, wasn't it?"

A supe in a Western theatre, having been inducted into the ghost part of Hamlet "for this night only," performed his part so badly that he was hissed off. The manager came forward, bowed gracefully, put his hand on his heart, announced that "Smith had agreed to give up the ghost," bowed again, retired, and all was peace once more.

A witty lawyer once jocosely asked a boarding-house keeper the following question: "If a man gives you five hundred dollars to keep for him, and dies, what are you to do? Do you pray for him?" "No, sir," replied he, "I pray for another like him."

TRUE FRIENDSHIP.—Its blossoms expand in the noontide of prosperity, but it yields its sweet fragrance in the dark night of adversity. It is not only beautiful and fragrant, but it possesses rare medicinal virtues. Its green leaves are for the binding up of the broken heart, and for the healing of the wounded spirit. It is an anti-dote for the poisoned shafts of calumny, and remarkable for giving relief to all pains of the heart.

People who buy second hand bed-steads are said to be fond of company.

or, at five bushels Wheat to the barrel, equal to 494,808 barrels Flour.

The following exhibit illustrates the practical result of the working of ten acres of ground on Puto Creek, the present season:

Plowing 10 acres, at $3 per acre	$30 00
1,000 lbs. Seed Wheat, at 2 1-2c. per lb.	25 00
Harrowing and Sowing	18 00
Reaping, Binding, &c.	35 00
Use of Reaper	10 00
Threshing	48 00
Use of Threshing Machine	15 00
Delivering the same in Sacramento	55 00

Total expense	$264 00
Ten acres, yielding 35 bushels per acre, is 350 bushels, or 21,000 lbs. at 2 1-2c., is	$525 00

THE WIDE WEST,

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

Devoted to Literature, the Arts, and the Diffusion of General Intelligenco.

THE WIDE WEST having now been in existence for a period sufficiently extended to enable all newspaper readers to ascertain its charactersitics and form their own opinion as to its merits, its proprietors do not deem it necessary to enter into an extended notice of its objects and the means by which they are to be attained. It will continue to uphold the Right, and to satirize Pretension and Corruption, whether it be in the person of a "merchant prince" or a prominent politician.

In its News Department, it will be found correct and complete. In the Literary Department, the pens that have hitherto been employed will continue to address its readers, and will be aided from time to time by new contributors, as our arrangements become complete. On affairs of the day, as heretofore, the WIDE WEST will be candid and free of speech—concealing nothing from awe of position—publishing nothing not sustained by facts and good motives.

ENGRAVINGS will be made a feature in the WIDE WEST. It is with no little satisfaction that we call public attention to the fact that the most complete, artistic and truthful representations of California Life which have been published, have appeared in its columns. Every phase of Life on the Pacific has been depicted, from the Miner to the Ranchero, from the Digger to the Chinaman. Our arrangements in this branch are rapidly extending, and we hope ere long to attain such a degree of excellence as shall set competion at defiance.
